

BOARD BRIEFS

Action of the Board of Education of Dearborn Heights School District No. 7

At its Special Meeting/Study Session on Tuesday, October 3, 2017 the Board of Education discussed the following:

- An hour-long board self-assessment session was moderated by Dr. Leonard Rezmierski, WCRESA consultant. Target areas to be addressed at a future study session are: Board Responsibilities and Board/Superintendent Relations. MASB designed the self-assessment process to encourage boards to develop a strong commitment to regularly evaluate and improve their practices and procedures.

At its Regular Meeting on Tuesday, October 3, 2017 the Board of Education discussed/took action on the following items:

- Mr. Fred Marinucci, Sodexo General Manager, presented a food service year-end review for 2016-17 and outlined expectations for the 2017-18 school year.
- Superintendent Mast outlined her recent decisions to end reclassification at the high school, add a tiered approach to the math requirements at the high school, and organize a committee to gather data to guide recommendations that she will bring to the board at a future meeting in regards to the configuration of our elementary schools.
- Kudos! recognition went to the following individuals:

Nancy Jordan, Administrative Assistant-Bedford
